Paddle Your Own Canoe is not without its charms, and I even agreed with some of what he had to say about his approach to life (this is not a traditional memoir; it's what Offerman terms a "guide to delicious living").

Offerman clearly adores his wife, and has some fun anecdotes and some amusing turns of phrase. I listened to this in audiobook, and that's probably the best medium for it.

Both are woodworkers, Offerman being slightly more artistic in his pursuits with the Offerman Woodshop (go check it out, it s awesome), and both have a love for music, particularly the saxophone.
