The 10 Best Personal Injury Lawyers in Houston TX 2018

To become qualified to be a personal injury lawyer in the United States, a person must earn a bachelor's degree, followed by a Doctor of Jurisprudence degree from a law school. Most states then require the person to pass the bar exam to become licensed to practice law. Unlike many attorneys who require a retainer, personal injury lawyers often work on contingency fees. This means that in lieu of payment upfront, they receive an agreed-upon percentage of the settlement in case of a win.
