Another Piece of My Heart by Jane Green Goodreads

Jane Green's Another Piece Of My Heart was not my cup of tea. I only stuck with it because I was determined to find if these characters would reach some peace or redemption, but never felt invested in their journeys. Though I thought I was supposed to sympathize with Andi against monstrous Emily only to "get" what Emily was going through later in the story, all I felt was endless frustration at both women and lukewarm Ethan, Andi's husband and Emily's father, for being so blind.

A Piece of My Heart Blessings Georgia 4 by Sharon Sala

Stole My Heart I don't remember ever being disappointed by Sharon Sala and her record is still safe with me. What a joy it is to read her work. Her writing transports you inside the story so you feel you've become a part of it. In "A Piece of My Heart", Harley-riding Mercy Dane is almost too unconventional for the small town of Blessings, Georgia.
