Now stand up the pineapple on one of the flat ends. Using the tip of the knife, begin slicing off the outside of the pineapple in strips, trying not to cut too much of the yellow flesh. Continue doing this until all of the outer skin is gone; if some eyes remain, cut those off so the pineapple is nice and clean.

Pineapple Sangria recipe Epicurious com

This recipe is in line with many of the other Sangria recipes that I've read (and tasted lately). The addition of brandy seems to be the common thread in all of them. I'm sure that Sangria "purists" may object to the use of white wine but this recipe is perfect with summer menu fare and is delicious.
