Potty Leslie Patricelli board books Amazon de Leslie

My son started around 18months. All the books about the potty were long and wordy. He loved this book and asked to read it all the time. He thought the babies expressions were hilarious. Buying it a second time after the Potty book made it into the potty itself. Nice hard book and pretty indestructible, except to a lot of pee.

Potty Book for Girls Hannah Henry Amazon de Alyssa

This is a sweet book about a little girl named Hannah who is ready to start using the potty. It shows the transition from diapers to "very special underwear". The book uses potty words like "pee and poop." Hannah has a few accidents, but Mom and Dad are still encouraging. By the end for the book, Hannah is very proud of herself and her potty success. She also will tell your little girl a secret, that she too can use a potty.

Potty by Leslie Patricelli Share book recommendations

The book s main theme is behavior modification (potty training), but it treats it pretty respectfully. No one coerces baby to use the po Note we are NOT actively potty training and probably won t (unless we end up in one of those school requires it situations), as we re trying to wait for our son to be ready when he s ready.

Potty Board Book Walmart com

My daughter loves this book! I have read it at least 30 times a day many days in a row. I think it is a cute book, but needs a little more. It shows how a cat and dog go, but just says "oh" I feel that it should explain what they do and why.
