Promise Not to Tell by Jayne Ann Krentz Goodreads

Promise Not to Tell is a real page-turner. It's fast-paced, interesting, and has some great twists and turns without ever losing sight of the main couple. I absolutely hated it whenever I had to put Virginia and Cabot's story down, and quite honestly, by the end of the book nothing could have torn me away.

Promise Not to Tell Jennifer McMahon I was a very lucky girl and won this book in a giveaway, so of course I'm going to try my best to write an honest and hopefully helpful review for it. It was my first ever giveaway book to arrive, so I was super excited to get started. Promise Not to Tell follows the story of Kate Cypher, who has just returned home to look after her ill mother when a

Promise Not to Tell A Novel by Jennifer McMahon

Because PROMISE NOT TO TELL was well-written and because it kept me in suspense almost until the end, I liked it and thought it good enough to get another book by this author. It sagged a bit at toward the last. Typical for today's books, as it seems the authors don't know how to bring them to an end. Interesting believable characters. Most of us probably went to school with someone like the potato girl.
