Barbecue Pulled Chicken Sandwich Recipe Life Tastes Good

Remove the chicken from the pot and allow to cool a bit. When the chicken is cool enough to handle, remove the meat from the bones, shredding it as you go. You'll want to remove the excess fat from the liquid in the pot. The fat will rise to the top and you can just skim it off with a spoon. Return the chicken to the sauce and reheat as needed. Give it a taste and add salt and pepper if needed.
