Step 3: If cooking on a can: Hold the bird upright, with the opening of the body cavity at the bottom, and lower it onto the beer can so the can fits into the cavity. Pull the chicken legs forward to form a sort of tripod, so the bird stands upright. The rear leg of the tripod is the beer can. If cooking on a roaster: Fill it with the beer mixture and position the chicken on top, following the manufacturer s instructions.

Beer Can Chicken recipe Epicurious com

This helped spread the flavor throughout. I have not had it grilled, but it comes out so well and evenly cooked and browned in the oven that I think I'll make it this way year round. I also loved that I found actual beer can chicken holders at the outdoor store so that it's no fuss no muss. We love this recipe, thank you for it.
