Walk Two Moons by Sharon Creech Goodreads

I read Walk Two Moons as part of the "literature circle" for my 6th grade son's class. I went into the read cold, knowing only what was written on the back of the book and the fact that it was a Newberry winner. The basic idea of the story is a teenage girl (Sal) is traveling cross country with her grandparents to try and find her mother.

As I stepped out into our tiny backyard to scream, the phone rang. On the other end of the phone was Kathleen Horning, calling from the American Library Association convention in Philadelphia. She informed me that Walk Two Moons had received the Newbery Medal. To say I was shocked is a vast understatement.
