The Remorseful Day for me was a very bor-ing, slow, uneventful read. I've read two Inspector Morse books. The Way Through the Woods was my first and in my opinion far better than The Remorseful Day. Morse is an arrogant and conceded man who's detecting doesn't impress enough to counter balance these faults. He likes to belittle his fellow officers, thinks everyone is beneath him, and wastes everyone's time by failing to communicate his progress, thus redundancy is the norm.
