The Confessions of Rick James Memoirs of a Super Freak

Rick James first signed with Motown Records with a band called the Mynah Birds where he played alongside Neil Young. Years later, he signed with Motown as a solo artist and released his debut album, Come Get It!, in 1978. As a producer and writer, he lent his talents to established acts like the Temptations, up-and-comers like Teena Marie and the Mary Jane Girls, and amateurs like comedian Eddie Murphy. He died in 2004.

The Confessions of Rick James Memoirs of a Super Freak

I enjoyed reading about Rick James from his point of view, esp after everything I've seen and heard. I also found out a lot of stuff I never knew about him I didn't know that he was on the West Coast and knew Neil Young or Jim Morrison. I never knew Salvador Dali drew Rick James on a napkin either.
