Rules of Thumb by Tom Parker Goodreads Share book

This book literally comprises 896 rules of thumb. Moreover, it is well-indexed. However, since the copy I read was published in 1983, it is primarily of historical interest. Here, for example, one will come across a submission from West Berlin--a place that more than two decades ago combined with East Berlin.

Rule of thumb Wikipedia

In the late 20th century, some efforts were made to discourage the phrase rule of thumb, which was seen as taboo owing to this false origin. Patricia T. O'Conner, former editor of the New York Times Book Review, described it as "one of the most persistent myths of political correctness".
