Letter of Authorization to Sell Property

Authorization letter to sell the property has to be written with utmost care. You as the owner of the property assign the task of showing and selling it to the interested party to some trustworthy person and legally authorize that person to handle all the dealings with the concerned party. Since you as the owner of the property cannot deal with the potential buyer in person, the buyer needs to be assured about the transparency of the deal. The letter of authorization does the same.
