Classic little story in the Little Golden books. The Nephew brought this to be read again. He's going through the Little Golden Books on the shelf. The pictures are quaint. The Tugboat is in over his head and it all turns out alright. It's about jumping into the world. The nephew thought it was ok. He gave it 3 stars. I think it's cute enough.

I wish that more books published today had the care and value in Little Golden Books. The story is rich but easy for a child to understand, the illustrations are whimsical but masterful. Each page is a work of art. We love Little Golden Books and this was one we knew we had to our library.
