Secrets of the Freemasons by Michael Bradley Goodreads

Either Manly P. Hall is off the mark or Michael Beasley is! I'll have to bet on the latter. It's a nicely laid out book. Very easy to read. If you're looking for just an overview of Freemasonry then this book is okay (even with the inaccuracies). If you're looking for a serious study of Freemasonry then this book isn't for you.

The Secrets of the Freemasons Michael Bradley

I'm not sure what the secrets are .. but it was a quick interesting read. Great book for the man in your life, who has interests in these things but gets intimidated by books with all words and no pictures. Very informative but a bit hokey - which I think is the appeal and charm to this mysterious group.
