Southern Butter Beans with Bacon Southern Bite

For me, butter beans are the fresh variety of small white and green lima beans. For many folks, the term butter bean refers to the large dried limas that are rehydrated and cooked. I call those dried limas. And anything of the green variety in between, I've always just called limas. The truth is, they're all limas of some sort. And the best part is this recipe works for just about all of those fresh or frozen limas regardless of what you call them.

Southern Butter Beans Never Enough Thyme

In traditional southern cooking, butter beans are seasoned with a bit of fat back or a smoked ham hock. To cut back on the fat, I use chicken bouillon and a butter substitute for my seasonings. How to Cook Southern Butter Beans: Place butter beans, butter substitute, chicken bouillon, and water to cover in a small slow cooker. Cook on high for 1 hours.
