John Shelby Spong Wikipedia

Spong's writings rely on Biblical and non-Biblical sources and are influenced by modern critical analysis of these sources (see especially Spong, 1991). He is representative of a stream of thought with roots in the medieval universalism of Peter Abelard and the existentialism of Paul Tillich , whom he has called his favorite theologian.

Born of a Woman English Edition eBook John Shelby Spong

Spong points out the fallacy of their ways, and they (being unable to honorably or truthfully defend their behavior) respond by attacking his "motives." These are the same tactics used when, decades ago, Spong was attacked for being a "liberal Negro sympathizer" during desegregation of the south -- they failed then, and they will fail now.
