When I read this book it really gave me the viewpoint of how to pursue any goal and make it a reality in the business world. McCay's story about buying 15,000 tickets to a Twins game really sets the pace and the lessons he describes throughout the book is what makes it a priceless text. This book is a must read.

Swimming with the Sharks by Debbie Reed Fischer

Despite the characters being somewhat thinly written and a slow plot in the first half of the book, this book still kept my interest. The subject and the writing are edgy enough to compel you to keep going. I found the main character and her wishy washy morals to be irritating but this could just be a function of me as an adult reading a YA novel. Teens may be more sympathetic to her trials and bad decisions.
