The Anubis Gates by Tim Powers

"The Anubis Gates" is a terrific time travel fantasy. I never quite knew where the story was going or what was going to happen next. Tim Powers is one of those writers who packs meaning and significance into every scene. I found myself having to backtrack several times to see if I had missed something.

The Anubis Gates by Tim Powers book review

After I was introduced to Tim Powers through his Cold War fantasy, Declare, I attempted to track down his earlier works at libraries and used bookstores. Several proved impossible to find. Among these was the novel that first made him famous: The Anubis Gates, so eventually I gave in and bought a new copy.

Reviews The Anubis Gates by Tim Powers LibraryThing

The Anubis Gates is the second novel I've read by Tim Powers, and I found it somewhat inferior to the first (Declare). It was gory and tended to telegraph its plot twists, as well as to emphasize them after the fact in a way that made me think that Powers didn't trust the perceptions of the reader.
