The Asylum by John Harwood Goodreads Share book

I didn't enjoy The Asylum, a historical fiction about a woman who wakes up in an asylum with memories that don't match the identity that the staff have assigned to her. It's probably just me. I was listening to the audiobook on my way to and from work, so I took this story in pieces rather than all at once.

Asylum Asylum Series 1 by Madeleine Roux Paperback

By the way this was her first teen book and there are several more Asylum books. My favorite part was when Dan finds out he's going insane. Anonymous: More than 1 year ago: Part ghost story part mystery could not guess where this book was going and found all the characters interesting.

Asylums brought Goffman immediate recognition when it was published in 1961, and by the 1970s had become required reading in some introductory sociology courses, according to socialist author Peter Sedgwick, who considered the book a "powerful and compelling study" and the recognition it brought to Goffman "thoroughly deserved".
