Doppelganger Bloodwater Mysteries 3 by Pete Hautman

The third BLOODWATER MYSTERIES book mixes up the format of the previous two by making the mystery more personal. Whereas the first two mysteries found the protagonists accidentally stumbling into mysterious circumstances, this one finds them looking into Brian's past, and finding it's not as simple as he originally thought.

Skullduggery Bloodwater Mysteries 2 by Pete Hautman

Second in the BLOODWATER MYSTERIES series, this is another low-key, humorous mystery, mostly intended for a YA audience. The protagonists of the previous book are back, this time tackling an archaeological and environmental mystery. There's nothing TOO scary or TOO suspenseful, but the characters are well-drawn, and it's a compelling narrative. It's nice to read a YA book where the parents are alive and supportive, even if they aren't always happy with the choices they make.

The Bloodwater Mysteries Skullduggery by Pete Hautman

The mystery thickens with the arrival of Eric Bloodwater and his family and their plans to tear down Indian Bluff to build condos. Not only do they have to find the mysterious attacker, but the future of Indian Bluff depends on them solving the whole mystery. Another great mystery by Pete Hautman and Mary Logue that you've just got to read.
