Book Review Crazy Love by Francis Chan Tim Challies

This book, he says, is written for those who want more Jesus. It is for those who are bored with what American Christianity offers. It is for those who don't want to plateau, who would rather die before their convictions do. It is a book that is meant to change the way Christians live their lives.

Crazy in Love Book Review Common Sense Media

This book has a cute premise: Mary Jane has two voices in her head: a good girl and a, well, not-so-good girl.

These voices advise her about her relationship with Jackson, the boy she's fallen for, who is also dating Star, the popular, mean girl at school.
