Me Before You Summary Shmoop

Before his death, Will writes Lou a letter that specifically requests that it only be opened while Lou is a Paris caf . So she goes. The letter says that Will has left Lou a small amount of money so she can go back to school and follow her dreams. It also expresses Will's sadness at causing her pain, though he hopes that she will emerge from the other end of her grief as a better person. Thus begins a bold new chapter in Lou's life.
