Collected Works of C G Jung Volume 12 Psychology and

I've been studying the work of Dr. Jung since 1987, and this work contains many new and useful insights into his thinking about psychology. This is not the place to start with a study of Dr. Jung's work, which is highly complex, very broad, and very deep into the study of the psyche, but it is an important piece of the overall oeuvre.

The Archetypes and the Collective Unconscious Collected

In this volume, taken from the "Collected Works", Jung describes and elaborates the two concepts. Three essays establish the theoretical basis, followed by essays on specific archetypes. The relation of these to the process of individualization is examined in the last section of the book.
