The Complete Works of Agatha Christie by Agatha Christie

I read the Miss Marple books and stories first (my favorites), then all the Hercule Poirot, then everything I had skipped. Months of reading Agatha Christie, and I never got bored, or tired of it (though I did start to fall into the formula, and be able to predict when various parts of the book would happen).

The Complete Works of Agatha Christie Chance Physics

The official Agatha Christie website provides this handy list of her complete works in chronological order. The list is eight pages long and suggests that I have got my work cut out for me. As a preliminary hypothesis about the popularity of Christie's books, I shall propose that it is partly because of their very comforting nature.
