The Enlightened Heart by Stephen Mitchell Goodreads

Both of these anthologies, The Enlightened Heart and the Enlightened Mind, are edited by the scholar, poet, translator, Stephen Mitchell. For those of you interested in poetic and religious ecumenism, I would highly recommend these two works to you. The first is an anthology of world poetry with mostly religious and mystical themes.

The Enlightened Heart Stephen Mitchell

The enlightened of all times and places have entered into this truth. In it there is no gain or loss; one instant is ten thousand years. There is no here, no there; infinity is right before your eyes. The tiny is as large as the vast when objective boundaries have vanished; the vast is as small as the tiny when you don't have external limits.

The Enlightened Heart An Anthology of Sacred Poetry

As it notes in the Foreword, while most such poetry is of longing, the poems here are of fulfillment and go straight to the heart of things. A great gift for those who ecumenical (but not necessarily Christian)--or should be--and love wisdom from all cultures. Pure gold.
