Negative fan reaction to The Eyes of the Dragon was an inspiration for King's subsequent novel Misery. The protagonist of Misery was a successful romance novelist who killed off his most popular character to allow himself to write in other styles of fiction only to be imprisoned by a deranged fan; King saw Misery as a metaphor for the fact that he felt chained to writing horror fiction.

The Eyes of the Dragon by Stephen King Barnes Noble

This book, while still a dark story, is a completely different type for Mr. King. I loved it. Stephen King takes you into a whole new world that somehow feels familiar with all of the other fantasy types stories that are written. I recommend it, whether you enjoy his writing or not. You will not be disappointed.
