This Fleeting World A Short History of Humanity

It's called This Fleeting World: A Short History of Humanity, and it's written by the brilliant and eloquent world historian, David Christian, who is enjoying a well-deserved year at the National Humanities Center in North Carolina, an idyllic spot where he says it requires Puritan zeal to stick with his work. The book is only about a hundred pages and covers not only the history of humanity but the origins of the universe and of life, the big history David is known for.
