

THE GENEVA TRAP

RELATED BOOK :

The Geneva Trap Liz Carlyle 7 by Stella Rimington

In The Geneva Trap, Stella Rimington's 7th Liz Carlyle espionage novel, the spycraft shares time with a subplot involving Carlyle's mother's boyfriend's daughter, who is being harassed by a cult for money to use in some terrorist scheme. Its a strange marriage for a spy book, but seems to be part of the story because the spy story is fairly thin.

The Geneva Trap A Liz Carlyle novel Amazon co uk Stella

Stella Rimington has more in common with Charles Cumming than John Le Carre when it comes to espionage writing. That's no bad thing, meaning that The Geneva Trap is a breezy, contemporary read, making the murky world of espionage accessible without getting bogged down in a plot that is over-complicated.
