The Giver . 1 It was almost December, and Jonas was beginning to be frightened. No. Wrong word, Jonas thought. Frightened meant that deep, sickening feeling of something terrible about to happen. Frightened was the way he had felt a year ago when an unidentified aircraft had overflown the community twice. He had seen it both times. Squinting toward the sky, he had seen the sleek jet, almost a

In the book, the boy Jonas is given the responsibility to maintain the community status as regulated by the Elders who had established the Receiver of Memories to coach him in this unique job. The task is to refrain the community from the effects of war, pain and death memories, and to replace these with a false sense of happiness, void of free choice of marriage, children and job types.
