I like the King James version. I just think that it's more pure. Please don't argue with other Christians about what is right or wrong in this book with other Christians. That's really crummy and makes you a "Crummy Christian". I have to wait until January 1, 2001 before I start my odyssey again. To be honest, outside my own findings that reincarnation and vegetarianism seem to be stated, I haven't found anything real juicy yet. I hope you do. Good luck.
