Shipping was fast and the book was securely packaged. Overall the content of the book was surprising. This was a required book for my college course Death and Dying and I was heavily surprised by the amount of useful information within this book. A must read for anyone experiencing grief from a lost loved one.

The Last Dance Encountering Death and Dying JAMA

Physicians are dedicated to countering death. The new technologies of medicine focus on this end. Therefore, heart transplants, intrauterine surgery, and possible tissue transplants from fetal brains to injured brains are among issues at the frontier of medicine. The focus on finding a cure is so pervasive that the physician comes to regard death as a medical failure rather than a natural event. When Barney Clark died, his mechanical heart went on beating.
