The characters in the The Last Knight are entirely believable, which is one of the books strongest points. Mike is just what you d imagine a modern knight errant to be, sweet, and just slightly moronic, and his squire perfectly embodies the street wise sidekick every hero needs.

I adore this book so much. The plot line is so perfect, and it teaches you so many things. In most books there's one key moral, and in this one, there are so many. By the time you finish the book, you feel like you're a different person. If I could give this book a higher rating I would, because it's genius.
