The Laughing Jesus Religious Lies and Gnostic Wisdom by

This book shows Jesus of Nazareth in a whole new light. It explains early gnostic wisdom taught by Jesus that has been lost over the ages. For me, this book puts more of a human face on Jesus and it makes a lot of sense. It talks about how the Catholic church has twisted Jesus's words to suit their own agenda, as most christain religions tend to do.

The Laughing Jesus Exploring Theosophy David Pratt

The only elements of the Jesus myth that Paul mentions are Christ s death and resurrection, which are understood as symbolizing the process of initiation. It was Justin Martyr, in the second century CE, who first began to speak of Jesus as a real man who had been put to death by Pontius Pilate.
