The Liberty Amendments 2012 Mark Levin A short book report by Ron Housley The Liberty Amendments wound up in my Amazon cart after I succumbed to the cable news blitz plus personal nudging from several friends. Also, as I wrote in my book report on Levin's prior book, Ameritopia, this author does have some penchant for scholarship. All of that was a sufficient hook for me.

The Liberty Amendments Home

In his new book, Mark has proposed a number of amendments to the United States Constitution. He is stressing the fact that the Constitution can be amended by the several States and that the States, working alone, do have the power to amend the constitution as a second option to the more usual process of going through the U.S. Congress as has been done before.
