The Little Princesses by Marion Crawford Goodreads

If this book was frowned upon, I guess, the hint about Princess Margaret not being as smart as her sister is what the royals don't want us to know. I don't think that is a big deal. I don't think that is a big deal.

A Little Princess Book Review Common Sense Media

A LITTLE PRINCESS is a beautifully crafted novel that celebrates the power of imagination. Sara Crewe is a bright, inventive, and generous young heroine, and female readers will connect with her strongly despite the book's old-fashioned language and setting. In fact, there is something wonderfully compelling about Sarah's attic room, which is transformed from cold blankness to a magical place via Sara's -- and author Frances Hodgson Burnett's -- stories.

A Little Princess 1995 IMDb

I saw this movie with my 5 year old daughter -- and while it was a little too complex for her to follow I completely fell in love with it. Everything about it is beautiful, the sets, the costumes, the acting, even the painful parts are perfect. The scene toward the end where she's dancing in the window is eyewatering you just have to see it.
