The Longest Trip Home A Memoir by John Grogan

I hadn't yet read Marley & Me, I found The Longest Trip Home to be a wonderful introduction to John Grogan's narrative voice. Grogan is sympathetic, funny and witty as he shares the anecdotes and the milestones in his life.

Summary and reviews of The Longest Trip Home by John Grogan

"The Longest Trip Home takes Mr. Grogan from a boyhood as Mom's "little daffodil" into the shadow of somber, adult grief. And it honors his parents, perhaps not in the way they would have chosen but in a way that suits his talents: by bringing them to life on the page. He does what he did with Marley. His loss becomes our loss too." - The New York Times, Janet Maslin.

The Longest Trip Home A Memoir English Edition eBook

THE LONGEST TRIP HOME isn't great literature, but I'm giving five stars anyway because what is a man (or woman) but a lifetime's accumulation of experiences. While reading John's chronicle, he brought my own memories of a generally golden time growing up in the temperate clime of SoCal and in the halls of parochial school to the forefront of my mind. To him, then, for those reminders, honor is due.
