Peruse the Amazon reviews for The Mason Jar, and you'll see that it's a very divisive book. Either readers found it to be a beautiful, redemptive story or they kind of hated it. When I read the synopsis of The Mason Jar, I was very anxious to get my hands on it. I thought it sounded intriguing and different. And while it certainly turned out to be unlike any other book I've read, I also have to say that I ended up falling into that second group of readers previously mentioned.
