The Red Kimono by Jan Morrill Goodreads

The Red Kimono is one of those stories that demands it be read out loud. The second you start reading it for yourself, you want to share it with others. In my case, I started reading it out loud to my husband on a recent road trip. While he drove, I sat in the passenger seat reading the story out loud from my Kindle.

The Red Kimono

My historical fiction, The Red Kimono, opens with eight-year old Sachi searching for a Christmas present on December 7, 1941. Though Sachi was loosely based on the life of my mother, this scene was based on memories of my own childhood sneaking around, trying to find Christmas presents my parents might have hidden.
