Set in Brazil in the 1920s and 1930s, the Seamstress is an extraordinary historical fiction. Although this is her first novel, the author writes as an experienced storyteller and she has done a very thorough historical research.

The Seamstress by Sara Tuvel Bernstein Goodreads

The Seamstress is the amazing memoir of Seren (Sara) Tuvel, a holocaust survivor. When originally interviewed for her story, she merely referred to her life spent in the concentration camps as a "waste of time". This just gives you an idea of what a remarkable woman she was, with an incredible strength of character. In all senses, she was a "true" survivor.

The novel, by Frances De Pontes Peebles, is epic--641 pages--but is worth every glorious minute. Occasionally, after spending a significant amount of time with a book I am truly sad when it finally comes to an end (ie. The Count of Monte Cristo). I feel this way about The Seamstress. I will miss it.
