The White Fox by Brian Parvin Nebula Books

Titled The Singing Tree in Britain, it was re-released in America as The White Fox. Strangely, this was Parvins only book of this sort, as he then went on to write about forty pulp-westerns for Black Horse Westerns at Hale Publishers. Unfortunately, Parvin passed away a few years ago, and not much is known about the man outside of his various westerns.

The book began life during a visit to Seattle and the Woodland Park in 2013. The story of Felix, the Arctic fox was told to me by Sara of The Snow Leopard Trust and as she spoke images danced in my mind s eye. I carried it around for a while until Emma from Barrington Stoke got in touch to talk about maybe working together.
