The White Mountains Book Review Common Sense Media

This book has a fascinating premise, and though its pace is slow -- especially for today's young readers, who are used to roller-coaster movie action -- the rewards are great. This is an adventure for thoughtful young people.

The White Mountains Tripods Series 1 by John

This flatness, coupled with an incredibly unsatisfying ending (we never learn anything about the white mountains to which they ultimately escape) drag this short book down considerably. I'm curious as to whether the subsequent volumes will redeem the series.
