RELATED BOOK :

The Wild Palms by William Faulkner

When our bookclub decided to each do a classic, I found this early piece that I had missed during my quest to read all Faulkner. (I got into the early Hollywood junk and gave up but that's another story.) If I Forget Thee Jerusalem, which was published as the Wild Palms over WF's objections, is two stories that never intertwine.

Reading to Write The Wild Palms by William Faulkner

There is also a theme of incest running through The Wild Palms, but Faulkner doesn't develop it like he did in The Sound and the Fury. Charlotte tells how she loved her four brothers and sought someone to marry like them, and ended up marrying one of her brothers' best friends.
