"Thirty-Three Teeth" continues the saga of Dr. Siri Paiboun who, well into his seventies, is more or less drafted to serve as the coroner of Laos. The first in the series, "The Coroner's Lunch," was, for me, the nicest surprise I had all last year (from a book, that is), and the new one is, if anything, even better.

Thirty Three Teeth A Dr Siri Paiboun Mystery Book 2

Cotterill's mix of locale, Lao culture and spirituality, rationalism and traditional animistic shamanism, wry humour and very cutting yet sympathetic depiction of the post-revolutionary situation in Laos never fails to entice me. There is greatness in this series of little mysteries.

Thirty Three Teeth A Dr Siri Paiboun Mystery eBook

I am glad I discovered Colin Cotterill thanks to a work mate. The Dr Siri Novels are a mixture of (sarcastic) realism, fantasy and humanism, underpinned by a detailed knowledge of Indochina history of the 1970's. All the book are highly entertaining.
