Those Extraordinary Twins by Mark Twain Goodreads

I really liked "Those Extraordinary Twins." It's central premise -- that two conjoined twins might have two very different personalities from one another -- is unbelievably terrible. (eg. One of them drinks, the other doesn't. One of them is a braggart, the other is humble. One of them is a sack.) That being said, Twain seems to think the premise is absolutely hilarious, and he does not let up. In the end, I was totally charmed by how funny he seemed to think it was.
