Thug Matrimony Thug 3 by Wahida Clark Goodreads

Thug Matrimony was a realistic, juicy read that kept me engaged with the events and characters of the story. It's a urban fiction story about a group of friends from the hood, who were in the game, but turned their ways around, but realized very quickly your past don't always stay in the past.

Thug Matrimony Married to the Streets Trick Daddy

Being a true, sleazy thug might always keep him from reaching OutKast's popacular, always-on-MTV success. Too bad, since Thug Matrimony is his Stankonia and would have him blowing up big time if it weren't for his awfully nasty, MTV-unfriendly mouth and the widespread fear of down-bottom Southern rap.
