Much like Urijah Faber, this book is supremely positive and motivational, while also serving as a detailed autobiography. I could not help be struck by how similar "Laws of the Ring" is to Drew Brees' book, "Coming Back Strong: Unleashing the Hidden Power of Adversity", also an excellent read.

So, "The Laws of the Ring" is packed with considerably more substance than one finds in the typical MMA memoir. Faber is no meathead. This came through apparel deals, endorsements, real estate investments, opening up gyms, etc. His Team Alpha Male has been fabulously successful and has spawned many top ranked mixed martial artists.
