The Wealth of Nations Book 3 An Inquiry into the Nature

I bought the version of The Wealth of Nations by Bantam Classics, which was a mistake. About 50 pages of the book were apparently bound when not placed correctly. Which resulted in these pages being cut way to high, leading to the loss of plenty of text. The quality is very low and the price is a total scam. Also, the book was damaged at delivery.

The Wealth of Nations Books 1 3 by Adam Smith

The Wealth of Nations almost sparked a revolution in its time 1776. Adam Smith is considered the father of modern economics. I read this book for researching economics which started merely as an art, and is now a cryptic science ,the very foundation of "business". Book is artfully written. it is a weaving of words to cast a spell .
