10 Best Mystery Books of All Time FAMOUS AUTHORS

10. Tales of Mystery & Imagination by Edgar Allan Poe. Poe started off writing short mystery stories, eventually to become the father of this genre. His plot includes all the basics that you would need to get indulged into a mystery novel; it is a compilation of different writings by this author. This novel has claimed to be one of Poe's best written pieces. The ones who have read are accustomed to Poe's writing style but the ones who haven't should give this gothic literature a read.

What is the best mystery book series Quora

For the best mystery series ever written, that would have to go to Arthur Conan Doyle's Sherlock Holmes mysteries. I know, that answer is so expected it's almost cliché, but there's a reason his stories stand the test of time: There is no better detective character created than Holmes a genius with a whole host of problems surrounding him personally (i.e. drug use, and being an all-around pretentious ass).
