Jan Frazier Teachings Imagine a life without suffering

This essence has never known the swelling of pride or the grip of fear. It has never been lonely or ambitious. When the familiar sense of who you are has softened and grown light, when it is allowed to fall away, what remains is a pool of calm delight. You no longer ask things of your life. Each moment is enough, as it is. Life lived within that awareness is heaven on earth. It is human nature allowed to come to full flower.

When Fear Falls Away Realization

It just blew me away. I felt like I was somebody else. I made periodic forays out of my body to spend a few moments in the empty chair opposite mine, to look at myself sitting over there so calm, when once there had been a nurse kneeling in front of me, gently waving an ammonia gauze back and forth under my nose to keep me from passing out. I sat there noticing how utterly at ease I was. I was at least as baffled as I was relieved.
